

Biography for Nicole Nolet

For the past two years, Nicole has led health promotion program implementation as Program and Senior Coordinator in the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care. Currently, she leads programming that targets chronic disease prevention through healthy eating and active living initiatives, such as the Northern Fruit and Vegetable Program, as well as healthy eating active living, diabetes prevention, and smoke-free Ontario programming run by the Aboriginal Health Access Centres.

Nicole was awarded a Bachelor of Arts – Honours from York University where she double majored in Kinesiology and Health Science and Health Studies (Health Policy, Informatics and Management). She has an Ontario graduate certificate in Public Administration from Humber College.